Smoke And Mirrors

Kai tasted like smoke.

As a non-smoker, Hansi found the taste repugnant and irresistable all at the same time; Kai was forbidden, something he'd been warned about time and again. An addiction and bad habit all rolled into one. Kai was bad for him.

Softness of thin lips against his throat made him smile. From the moment they'd met he knew this would happen; Kai's reputation and his own curiosity had made it inevitable that they would tumble into bed, the older man's shine highlighting Hansi's subtle darkness.

He kissed the light, and tried not to think of withdrawal.
